

RUTH ST. DENIS TED SHAWN

—AND—

The Denishawn Dancers

—AT—

Cape Girardeau, Nov. 27

These world-famous classical dancers will be presented at the beautiful New Broadway Theater Monday evening, Nov. 27, at 8 o'clock, by THE CAPE GIRARDEAU SOUTHEAST MISSOURIAN as its annual classic for appreciative Southeast Missourians. The Missourian presented Percy Hemus in "The Impresario" last year; Madam Schumann-Heink, the world's most popular singer, the year before, and for several seasons the St. Louis Symphony orchestra. Hundreds of people from all parts of Southeast Missouri enjoyed these great entertainments, and now The Southeast Missourian offers by far the most costly and magnificent attraction ever presented in a Missouri city outside the three largest. While the setting of "The Impresario" was beautiful and appealed to the aesthetic eye and ear, it was not a circumstance in comparison to the gorgeousness of the Denishawn costumes and settings, which draw from both Orient and Occident their unparalleled charm.

Miss St. Denis and Mr. Shawn are supported by nine Denishawn dancers and an orchestra of four notable musicians. All the scenery, stage settings, electrical effects, etc., with the most magnificent costumes ever used in such an attraction make this an event second to none in America this season. It takes a great country like Southeast Missouri to have such entertainment, but there is nothing too good for Southeast Missourians, as has often been demonstrated.

RESERVED SEATS ON SALE MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20

At The Missourian office in Cape Girardeau. Telephone or write immediately for reservations. Tickets, including war tax, $3 and $2. Special attention will be given to out-of-town orders. Don't hesitate to ask The Missourian to make hotel or any other kind of reservation for you. Come and see by far the most inspiring and magnificent entertainment ever given in Southeast Missouri.

"TACKY PARTY."

Miss Gladys Chism entertained a number of young people at her home Thursday evening with a "tacky party." A cake was given to the tackiest one there, same being won by Miss Mayme Hearn. The cake was passed around and everyone willingly helped themselves, but after the chocolate which decorated the lican officialdom in this county, which greatly aided the voters in arriving at the just verdict they rendered.

My desire to give an expression of thanks and a meed of praise where praise is justly due impels me to violate a rule long adhered to by me in making this public statement.

Sincerely yours,

EVERETT REEVES,

Chairman Pemiscot County Democratic Committee

Mrs. C. S. York,

Hayti, Mo.

Dear Mrs. York:

It is indeed a pleasure to acknowledge, with thanks and appreciation, the splendid and invaluable services rendered in the recent campaign by you and the Woman's Democratic Committee of this county under your leadership. The results of the election show that women can be depended on to express themselves at the polls in a very emphatic way when interest has been stirred by effective leadership and organization work.

With warm appreciation and thanks, I beg to remain,
Faithfully yours,

EVERETT REEVES,

Ch'm'n Pemiscot County Democratic Committee.

Caruthersville, Mo., Nov. 14, 1922.

Dear Friend Allen:

I take much pleasure in expressing to you on behalf of myself and the Democratic candidates our appreciation and thanks for the very important part you took in rolling up the biggest Democratic majority in the history of Pemiscot county. While we deserved to win, our victory could not have been so overwhelming without an effective militant organization, of which you have proved yourself an efficient member. Again thanking you, I beg to remain,

Faithfully your friend,

EVERETT REEVES,

Ch'm'n. Pemiscot County Democratic Committee.
